Another Elephant at Large!!! A NOTHER Caravan is about to invade the sa-ored precincts of our village. And, notwith-standing our elergy have preached against them, and that we have cautioned the people to appropri-ate their money to a better use, we are in fear the Elephantine troupe will introduce their clongated probases into the pockets of our good citizens, and fileh from them several hundred good round hard dollars on this occasion.

We would advise our friends to call at our store, and expend what little surplus change they have on hand before going to the circus, as we have a large and choice variety of GOODS, which we will sell extremely low for cash; and the fact is, we have a decided inclination to handle any little filthy Incre that may be stirring about.
